

Sporting Clay Shoot Proceeds Fund Faculty Mini-Grants

Each academic year when a college instructor starts their class preparations and looks at their own department budget, they start a wish list of what they could do if they just had a piece of equipment or the opportunity to use a new innovative technique for a better teaching and learning experience. The Foundation allows the instructor to apply for a mini-grant to purchase that special item which can make a difference in their teaching efforts.

In the 2009-10 academic year, several faculty mini grants totaling over $6,600 were fully or partially funded for that purpose from the proceeds of the Foundation Sporting Clay Shoot event.
